

Keith Boswell

Keith Boswell is a Team Leader for the Virginia Economic Development Partnership (VEDP) where he manages the Security and Services Team through designing strategic marketing initiatives and oversees the team's activities in support of the mission and goals of the VEDP. His main duties include expanding existing industries and attracting new business to the Commonwealth of Virginia, with a particular emphasis on the nanotechnology industry. Mr. Boswell currently leads the Distributed Services Initiative for VEDP, which seeks to find creative solutions for companies that reside in high-cost, labor-deficient communities. He was an early founding member of the Virginia Biotechnology Association and has served on the steering committee for the Virginia Nanotechnology Initiative. Mr. Boswell graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University with a B.S. in business administration and management and received his M.B.A. from the University of Richmond.
